RESEARCH DATA ANALYTICS SERVICES AGREEMENT

Test reference: TEST-LA-2026-001 | Version: 0.1 | Date: 11 September 2026
FICTIONAL TEST DOCUMENT - NOT FOR SIGNATURE OR REAL USE

1. Parties and purpose

This agreement is between Example Research University (the University), 10 Campus Road, Example City, and Meridian Analytics Demo LLC (the Supplier), 25 Innovation Avenue, Example City. Both organizations and all addresses in this document are fictional. The Supplier will provide data analytics services for the University research administration team.

2. Term and renewal

The effective date is 1 October 2026. The initial term ends on 30 September 2027. The agreement renews automatically for successive twelve-month terms unless the University gives written notice at least 120 days before the end of the current term. The Supplier may increase the annual fee by any amount on renewal by giving 15 days notice.

3. Services and deliverables

The Supplier shall configure one hosted analytics dashboard, import the supplied dataset, provide monthly usage reports, and deliver two remote training sessions. Initial configuration is due within 45 calendar days after receipt of the dataset. The parties will agree acceptance criteria after the dashboard is delivered.

4. Fees and payment

The initial contract fee is AED 240,000, excluding applicable taxes. The University shall pay 100 percent within seven days after signing. Fees are non-refundable, including if delivery is delayed or the agreement is terminated. The Supplier may charge additional integration fees without a purchase order or prior written approval.

Data, ownership and liability

5. Research data and access

The University may provide a dataset containing names, university email addresses, student identifiers and research project participation records. The Supplier may transfer the dataset to any subcontractor or hosting location it considers appropriate. The Supplier may retain copies indefinitely after the agreement ends.

6. Confidentiality

The Supplier will use reasonable efforts to keep information confidential when the University labels each item confidential in writing. This obligation ends 30 days after the agreement terminates. The Supplier may disclose information to its affiliates and subcontractors without obtaining a written confidentiality undertaking from them.

7. Intellectual property and publication

All dashboards, code, reports, derived datasets and findings produced under this agreement belong exclusively to the Supplier. The University receives a revocable right to use the dashboard during the paid term. The Supplier may publish project results and identify the University in promotional materials without prior review or permission.

8. Liability and indemnity

The Supplier total liability for all claims is limited to AED 1,000. The Supplier has no liability for data loss, confidentiality breaches, service interruption or subcontractor acts. The University shall indemnify the Supplier against all claims arising from the services, including claims caused by the Supplier negligence. No corresponding indemnity is provided by the Supplier.

9. Service availability

The Supplier aims to keep the service available when practicable. No minimum availability, incident response deadline, recovery time or service credit applies. The Supplier may suspend access at any time for maintenance or business reasons without advance notice.

Exit, disputes and execution

10. Termination and exit

The Supplier may terminate for convenience on five days written notice. The University may terminate only after a material breach remains unremedied for 90 days after written notice. Prepaid fees will not be refunded. On termination, the Supplier may immediately disable all University access. No data export, migration assistance or deletion certificate is included.

11. Disputes and governing terms

The governing law and dispute resolution forum will be agreed by the parties after signature. Pending such agreement, the Supplier may choose the forum in which any claim is brought.

12. Order of precedence

Supplier website terms, as amended by the Supplier from time to time, prevail over this agreement. Changes to the website terms bind the University immediately upon publication. No countersignature or advance notification is required.

13. Notices and approvals

Operational notices may be sent to the project contacts nominated after signature. The University internal approval reference is left blank: _____. The source of funding and budget-holder approval are to be confirmed.
